Re: United States v. Salvatore Larosa
10 Cr 993 (SLT)

Dear Judge Townes:

Mr. Larosa was released on a $1 million Bond, secured by the homes of his relatives with an electronic monitoring bracelet in the case. He may presently leave his residence to work, to go to church, for medical emergencies and for attorney visits. He has at all times been compliant with the terms of his release.

Mr. LaRosa's fiancé, Jennifer Pescitelli, is presently due to give birth to their child on December 2, 2011. By this letter, I am respectfully requesting that Mr. LaRosa be permitted to leave his residence to be present with her during childbirth and while she is admitted to the hospital and the child remains at the hospital. Of course, during permissible visiting hours. The hospital where she will give birth is Richmond University Medical Center, located at 355 Bard Avenue, in Staten Island, New York.

The government and U.S. Pretrial Services Office have both consented to this request.

Respectfully yours,

/JRF/

James R. Froccaro, Jr.
